DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES AND ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS<sup>1</sup>

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On August 31, 2015, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,<sup>2</sup> [the "Vaccine Act" or "Program"]. Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ["SIRVA"] as a result of her October 9, 2012 influenza ["flu"] vaccination. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 21, 2015, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for her SIRVA. On February 16, 2016, respondent filed a Proffer on Award of Compensation ["Proffer"] indicating petitioner should be awarded $120,000.00 in damages for actual and projected pain and suffering, and $1,159.89 in damages for past unreimbursable expenses. Proffer at 2. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

<sup>1</sup> Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, the undersigned intends to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012)(Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access.

Respondent further proffered that petitioner should be awarded $13,295.13 for attorneys' fees and costs. Proffer at 3. In accordance with General Order #9, the Proffer indicates that petitioner represents that she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. The Proffer further indicates that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request and the lack of any objection by respondent, the undersigned GRANTS the request for approval and payment of attorneys' fees and costs.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards

- A. A lump sum payment of $121,159.89 which represents compensation for actual and projected pain and suffering ($120,000.00) and past unreimbursable expenses ($1,159.89), in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Barbara Lykins. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).
- B. A lump sum payment of $13,295.13<sup>3</sup> in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and petitioner's counsel, Mark Schloegel, Esq., for attorneys' fees and costs.

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.<sup>4</sup>

IT IS SO ORDERED.

<sup>3</sup> This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec'y, HHS, 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir.1991).

<sup>4</sup> Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by the parties' joint filing of notice renouncing the right to seek review.

RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On August 31, 2015, petitioner, Barbara Lykins, filed a petition for compensation under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (“Vaccine Act”), alleging that she suffered from a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of receiving a seasonal influenza (“flu”) vaccine on October 8, 2012. On December 18, 2015, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) Report stating that petitioner’s arm injury is consistent with SIRVA and conceding that her SIRVA is compensable under the Vaccine Act. Accordingly, on December 21, 2015, Chief Special Master Dorsey issued a Ruling on Entitlement finding that petitioner is entitled to compensation for SIRVA.

I. Items of Compensation

For the purposes of this proffer, the term “vaccine-related” is as described in Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report filed on December 18, 2015.

A. Future Unreimbursable Expenses

The parties agree that based upon the evidence of record, petitioner will not require future care for her vaccine-related injury. Therefore, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded no future unreimbursable expenses under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(1).

Petitioner agrees.

B. Lost Earnings

The parties agree that based upon the evidence of record, petitioner has not incurred and will not incur any loss of earnings as a result of her vaccine injury. Therefore, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded no actual or anticipated loss of earnings under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(3)(A). Petitioner agrees.

C. Pain and Suffering

Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $120,000.00 in actual and projected pain and suffering. This amount reflects that the award for projected pain and suffering has been reduced to net present value. See 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(4). Petitioner agrees.

D. Past Unreimbursable Expenses

Evidence supplied by petitioner documents her expenditure of past unreimbursable expenses related to her vaccine-related injury. Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded past unreimbursable expenses in the amount of $1,159.89. Petitioner agrees.

E. Medicaid Lien

Petitioner represents that there are no outstanding Medicaid liens against her.

F. Attorneys' Fees and Costs

Petitioner has supplied documentation of reasonable attorneys' fees and litigation costs in the amount of $13,295.13, incurred by petitioner's counsel in pursuit of this petition. In compliance with General Order #9, petitioner has indicated that she did not incur any out-of-pocket expenses in proceeding on the petition. Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $13,295.13 for attorneys' fees and costs. Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that compensation provided to petitioner should be made through lump sum payments as described below and request that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following:<sup>1</sup>

- A. A lump sum payment of $121,159.89, representing compensation for pain and suffering and past unreimbursable expenses, in the form of a check payable to petitioner; and
- B. A lump sum payment of $13,295.13 in the form of a check payable to petitioner and petitioner's attorney, Mark Schloegel, Esq., for attorneys' fees and costs. Petitioner agrees to endorse this payment to petitioner's attorney.

III. Summary of Recommended Payments Following Judgment

- |  |                     |
|--|---------------------|
| A. Lump sum paid to petitioner:          | $121,159.89 |
| B. Reasonable Attorneys' Fees and Costs: | $13,295.13  |
